

Malcolm Read is the current President of the Society. He has lived in Victoria for seven years, moving here from Alberta where he enjoyed a career as a university professor and as an early interventionist. He taught in teacher preparation programs at the Universities of Alberta, Calgary and Mount Royal. Malcolm is an active member of the Cathedral parish and volunteers in various areas in addition to his work on the Board, including with refugees, with the homeless, and with the Victoria Multi-faith Society.

Malcolm has a married son and a daughter in Victoria and three grandchildren, and a married son and two grandchildren living in Smithers.