

Mary Hendy Moved to Canada with her husband in 1971 and to Victoria in 1994. Her background is in primary education with an emphasis on students with special needs. She has masters degrees in both education administration and special education. She was appointed school principal in 1982 in Burnaby B.C. and her last assignment was at George Jay School in Victoria. Since retiring in 2001 Mary has been active in the life of the Cathedral Parish and served on the School Board in various roles, including chair. She recently returned to the Board after a gap of three years.

Mary is married to Martin and has two sons and seven grandchildren.