

Stephen Collings is the Parent Support Group Representative on the Cathedral School Board, and a proud parent of two Cathedral School children. Originally from Vancouver, Stephen studied Communications before a life and career change took him, with family, to Toronto. After returning to the west coast some years later, priorities changed as the family grew. In recent years, Stephen has taken an active role with various local organizations, including the Cathedral School's PSG.