Dear CCCS Parents & Guardians,

Yesterday afternoon I had the pleasure of listening to the choristers sing at their first truly public evensong. What a wonderful surprise it was to hear their voices—already trained to sing in key and unison after only 2 months of training—fill the airy Chapel of the New Jerusalem. Congratulations to all the choristers for their dedication and focus, to their parents for getting them there on time each morning, and to Donald Hunt, Director of Music at the Cathedral, who is truly helping these angelic voices emerge.

As noted below, our grade 7 entrepreneurial class is experiencing enormous success. These students did everything from deciding on a product, designing it, making it, packaging it, marketing and then selling it, and all for an excellent cause: the SPCA.

There are many examples of student learning throughout the halls and in the classrooms as projects come to completion before the end of term. Report cards are now being prepared and I am enjoying reading about all the accomplishments and growth of the students in each grade. Report cards will go home with students next Wednesday.

Yours,

Comfort Kits: Parents, please note that we require a new comfort kit to be purchased for each child this year. Most of the kits are close to expiring and we also had others destroyed by mice. Kits include food, water, a blanket, light, and other essential items. Please bring cash or cheque to your child's teacher or the office. Comfort kits are $10 per child.
