

Richard Tuckey is a retired CPA (CA). He started with the firm Green Horwood LLP as an articling student in 1967, and achieved his CA designation in 1972. Dick was a partner of the firm for thirty-seven years. After retiring as a partner, he continued as an associate at Green Horwood until 2016. He is now officially retired, but he still maintains close contact with his firm.

Dick serves on the board for a variety of charities and non-profit organizations, including a not for profit housing society, Christ Church Cathedral School, and Royal Oak Burial Park! He and his wife Sally are living in the family home in which Dick grew up, where they raised three sons. Besides his volunteer work, Dick keeps busy beating back the forest that keeps trying to overtake their home.
